Turning to action

There is no rehearsal.
The time is Now
Now
Now,
. . . earth, pale blue dot
We will fail you not.

Connect with Nature

BE WITH NATURE! go outside

RESEARCH how climate change affects your community flooding in your backyard, changing food prices in the local market, extreme weather events, and so on. Sunrise Movement Ready For 100, Sierra Club, Chicago - Little Village Environmental Justice Organization \(LVEJO\)

Live Lightly on the Earth

FROM FILMMAKER - There is no one top action, we need a rehaul of the way we live with the planet and each other. Electing officials with climate as a top priority helps, as does eating and buying local, but this crisis is an existential one that questions who we are as people.

Encourage city officials to reach out to agencies like the EPA to take advantage of grant programs like Brownfields which revitalize and remediate environmentally hazardous areas. epa.gov/brownfields

Communicate and Learn

GET INVOLVED and join Sunrise, get involved with hub near you: sunrisemovement.org/hubs

JOIN One Earth's virtual book discussion groups for "All We Can Save," beginning the week of 3/14. Sign up: oneearthfilmfest.org

CONTACT municipal and city officials to make it known that environmental protection is a big issue in your community, something that has the potential to affect elections.

Use Your Voice

REACH OUT to lawmakers and officials to enact political change! Reach out to your local Department of Environmental Quality as well to encourage changes in pollution regulation

PARTICIPATE in public comment sessions of your local Department of Interior office to ensure restoration projects benefit your community. EPA, Local City, DEQ, DOI tceq.texas.gov/
